The deadline for submission is June 26th, 2023 at 23:59 p.m.

11) The pieces sent to the contest will be pre-selected by the festival's committee to decide whether they are suitable to run for the audience award. The material will be not returned, however, if it does not win the award, it can be collected in person in a 90- day-period after the end of the festival.

12) The pieces selected in former editions of this festival will be not allowed to participate.

13) The management of the festival reserves the right to obtain copies of the short films selected for promotion, advertising and non-profit exhibitions purposes.

14) The participants will be responsible for no third part rights claim involved in the pieces presented, as well as for any possible copyright claim.

15) A copy of the winning piece will remain as property of the video library created by the festival and it can be used or shown in further editions, in any media, with no financial gain purposes.

16) The pieces that pass the initial selection process will compete for the Audience Award of "X Festival de Cine de Roca", on July 6-9, 2023, which means 100 euros in cash for each category along with an exclusive trophy of the festival crafted by a local artist- one for each category.

17) The winning author will collect the prize in person or will delegate another member of the team; if this is not possible, a bank transfer payment will be made for the amount of the prize.

18) Participating in the “Festival de Cine de Música en Roca” means the acceptance of the present rules and of any decisions taken by the management of the festival in any circumstances not recorded here.

19) The selected pieces will be published on the festival's website or social networks before the festival.
